Kirby and Christine enjoyed the fellowship of the group, getting to meet and make new friends, making contact with old friends and working with them again. It is always hard to see the handicapped and know that with some education, shots, and basic health care would take care of a lot of their problems even cure some. We could not do this without our Volunteers and Donors. Thanks very much for all your help !!

Noel Antonia age 19 had both deformed legs amputated to be fit for a prosthesis, but since the amputation was so severe and the prostheses were not of great quality, he found it easier and more comfortable to get around by walking on his hands, or dragging himself along the ground

Jesús' father carries him to school every morning, and his mother comes to carry him home in the afternoon. During recess, when the other children go outside to play, Jesús stays inside doing his homework, or sometimes he drags himself out to try his best to play with his friends. Jesús, with his useless less dangling from the chair, says his favorite activity is to run. Now, with his new PET, Jesus will be able to take himself to school and go out to play at recess with his friends. Now, he said, he'll be able to run faster than everyone. Jesús said his PET is only for boys and he won't give rides to any of the girls, but his father said Jesús is quite the lady's man.

Castellano Gusmán age 26 birth defect deformed legs and feet.

Her mother abandoned her and her father sent her to live with her grandparents. Recently her grandfather had a stroke, so now her grandmother is trying to take care of both of them. When she was seven she tried to enroll in school, but was not accepted because of her disability. With her new PET she hopes to be able to leave the house without help and to be more helpful to her grandmother in taking care of her grandfather. She said she would like to pay us, but has no money, so she asks that God pay us.
