CBS news correspondent, Dean Reynolds, did a story on PET in Leighton which aired late December. This story highlighted PET International and all 22 affiliates.

New lighting has enhanced the work areas in the PET shop thanks to De Vries Electric.

Thanks to Vermeer Corp., for the steel and now the painting of the steel parts has resulted in a more durable and professional finish.

Geetings, Inc. provides warehouse space for building supplies and Pierson Seed Co. supplies warehouse space for completed

Pella Community Foundation purchased for PET a new steel cutting saw. This gift makes such a difference in the quality of PETs.

Thank you, Lord, for using the children of the Sully Christian Grade School to share with others in need. In February, they had a read-a-thon and PET was the recipient of the funds to build 14 PETs.

2 Peoria ladies assisting with making the PET t-shirts.

BUILD DAY

On March 8, the PET shop and Bill's shop was a beehive of activity. Members of the Peoria CRC built 14 PETs that day, and provided the funds to pay for the building and shipping of those PETs and more.

We praise God for working through His people.
